Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account

To help the federal government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Section 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act<sup>1</sup> requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account (checking, savings, certificates of deposit, loans, safekeeping services, trust services, etc.).

What this means for you:

- When you open an account or request certain services, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, identification number such as your Social Security Number or Tax Identification Number, and other information that will allow us to identify you.
- We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

The principal purpose and routine uses of this information are to verify your identity, provide for the servicing of your account or loan, including communications with consumer reporting agencies, and in the event it is necessary, to locate you and collect on your loan(s). Providing any requested information is mandatory in order to open the account or receive the requested service. We will not be able to open your account or grant the service if the requested information is not provided.

In all cases, protection of our customers' identity and confidentiality is the Bank's pledge to you.

Acknowledgment and Agreement

The undersigned specifically acknowledge(s) that: (1) verification or re-verification of any information contained in the application may be made at any time by the Lender, its agents, successors, and assigns, either directly or through a credit reporting agency, from any source named in this application, and the original copy of this application will be retained by the Lender, even if the loan is not approved; (2) the Lender, its agents, successors and assigns will rely on the information contained in the application and I/We have a continuing obligation to amend and/or supplement the information provided in this application if any of the material facts which I/We have represented herein should change prior to closing; (3) in the event my/our payments on the loan indicated in this application become delinquent, the Lender, its agents, successors and assigns, may, in addition to all their other right and remedies, report my/our name(s) and account information to a credit reporting agency.

I/We certify that the information provided in this application is true and correct as of this date and that I/We understand the conditions set forth in this application.
