COLLEGE APPLICATION MONTH

Senior Information for Applications

Students, the information on this worksheet is commonly asked on college applications. If you intend to submit an application during your school's College Application Month event, please work with your parents to make sure that you know this information and memorize your social security number. This is not your college application.

ACT Test Date (month/year) | Composite Score

Some schools may ask about extracurricular activities, community involvement and/or work experience. Be prepared to include specific events, awards received, volunteer service or any other relevant information.

Dependency Status

You may be asked questions about your dependency status. If you rely on someone for financial support, like a parent or a legal guardian, you may be considered dependent.

Some college applications may ask the following questions:

- Are you the dependent of a legal resident of North Dakota?
- Are you the dependent of a full-time active duty member or former military member?
- Are you the dependent of a graduate of a North Dakota University System institution?
- Are you the dependent of a benefited employee of North Dakota University System?
